

IMPACT

Florida Christian College is once again making plans for our annual youth event IMPACT and group touch football tournament, Sun Bowl. It is the 21st anniversary of the Sun Bowl event. IMPACT will be a weekend of fun, football, an amazing outdoor carnival, and an opportunity to let you and your youth worship God and learn from His word.

This year IMPACT will begin on Friday, February 1st and will conclude no later than noon on Sunday, February 3rd.

We have designed this weekend to be both physically and spiritually challenging for students and adults. The purpose of IMPACT is threefold:

1. To provide an opportunity to share Christ with those who do not yet know Him.
2. To provide an opportunity for youth groups to build community through teamwork and competition.
3. To introduce students to Florida Christian College.

Saturday morning teams will begin their quest for the coveted title of Sun Bowl XXI Champions. Lunch will be provided by Chick-Fil-A. Breakfast will be provided for everyone on Saturday and Sunday Morning. Saturday afternoon the FCC campus will be transformed into an outdoor festival with inflatable games.

IMPACT Rules

- No blocking below the waist. No roll tackles, chop blocks, etc.
- A two-handed touch will constitute a tackle. No argument is allowed on the referee's judgment of a tackle. Once the whistle is blown, the play is over.
- Two forward passes equal a first down. Both of the completions must cross the original line of scrimmage before a tackle is made to count as a completion.
- No metal spikes are allowed. No bare feet are allowed.
- Fumbles are live balls and may be recovered by the defense.
- One knee on the ground is considered a tackle.
- On a reception, one foot in bounds is considered a catch.
- After a touchdown, the ball will be placed on the three-yard line. The scoring team will have one play to score a two-point conversion. Two points are awarded whether the ball is run in or thrown in.
- Eight players may be on the field for each play. Penalties will be assessed for having more than eight players on the field, but not for less than eight players. Two of the players must be female and one may be an adult. No more than one male and one female adult may be in the game at the same time. (Middle school only division can substitute high-school students for adults)
- The player snapping the ball to the quarterback and the person to his immediate left and right must stay in to block. They may not proceed more than five yards down field on a pass play until the ball is thrown. No center sneaks or other "playground plays."
- Excessive contact is illegal. You must go around blockers, not through them. If a referee deems that an individual is making too much contact, the result will be a fifteen-yard penalty. If it becomes a consistent problem, the player in question will be ejected from the game or even the tournament.
- There are no kickoffs. Offenses will start the game and after an opponent's touchdown on their own twenty yard line.
- Punts must be punted, no fakes. The defense may not rush on a punt and may only have one person back to receive the punt. No one may move down field until the ball is kicked.
- A penalty will be assessed and the offense will lose a down if the quarterback makes a forward pass once he has crossed the line of scrimmage.
- All defensive players must start the play approximately three yards back off the line of scrimmage. Once the ball is inside the defense's three-yard line, they may then line up on the goal line.
- Offensive off sides immediately stops the play.
- On an offensive foul, the penalty is assessed and the down is repeated.

- Penalties are five yards, except for unsportsmanlike conduct, which is 15 yards, and for defensive pass interference, which the ball is placed at the point of the foul and the offense is awarded an automatic first down. When defensive pass interference occurs in the end zone, the ball is placed on the one-yard line.
- Anyone using foul language can be ejected from the game without a warning!
- If any player receives two warnings in the course of the tournament, they can be expelled for the day.
- Ties will be decided on the field by a "Kansas Tie Breaker" method.
- No stripping of the ball will be allowed.
- Each game will have a running clock. There are no time outs.
- A game may not end on a defensive penalty.
- All participants must be in the sixth through twelfth grade and must have attended the church that they are playing for at least one time before the tournament. We want you to use this event as a tool to reach out to students who may not normally attend church, however blatant stacking of teams will not be tolerated.
- Youth ministers and or sponsors will be held directly responsible for their own behavior and the behavior of their participants and fans. Referees and the Competition Coordinator may exercise the right to remove anyone, including but not limited to: Youth Ministers, Sponsors, Players, and Fans, from the competition area. Please remember that we are representing Jesus Christ.
